

Kaneen Bursaries

for young fluent speakers of Manx Gaelic

Culture Vannin is pleased to invite applications for the Kaneen Bursaries for fluent speakers of Manx Gaelic.

There are two categories of eligibility:

- 1) Individuals aged 18-30 to attend an Irish language summer school such as Oideas Gael in Donegal.
- 2) A teacher wishing to take a school-based group (Year 5 or above) on a trip to an Irish medium school or Irish speaking event.

Bursary holders will be expected to write or record their experiences in Manx on their return.

Manxman and academic, Professor Brian Kaneen was a professor and lecturer in German and Linguistics at Simon Fraser University in British Columbia. A keen supporter of Esperanto, these bursaries reflect his wish to develop a wider understanding of the Gaelic continuum amongst young Manx speakers.

Applicants should fulfil the following criteria:

- Aged 18-30 if applying individually OR teacher / parent of Year 5 and above for school applications (school applications must include responsible chaperones).
- Resident in the Isle of Man (this includes those resident in the IOM but studying in the UK, Ireland or elsewhere).
- Fluent speaker(s) of Manx (minimum TCG or equivalent if 18+)

To apply, please fill in the application form available here and return it as a PDF to gaelg@culturevannin.im which is the contact if further information is required.

Personal data collected will only be used in relation to the Kaneen Bursary and will be kept secure and retained in line with regulations for public financial records.
